John

It was a trip I'll never forget. My wife and I decided to go camping with our daughter Julia for the first time. We had all been so excited but we couldn't have guessed what was waiting for us there.

The moment we got out of the car to continue our trip on foot was the happiest moment of my life. We were sitting outside the car, checking the map and laughing. I had a small beard, my <sup>black</sup> hair grew wild and it was trying to escape my striped hat. I also had a grey jacket, a black T-shirt and jeans. My significant other looked perfect as usual. She had her blonde hair in a ponytail while wearing a scarf, a blue shirt and jeans. It was cold, so she took a blanket and wrapped it around her.

Our trip continued as usual until the night. I woke up very confused. The outside was bright although it was the middle of the night. Something bizarre was happening. Then I heard bewildering screams of wild animals and it clicked. 'It is a forest fire' - I said to myself. 'Oh my God! What should I do?' - I asked myself. It was very challenging to stay calm. I looked at my family. They were so ignorant and happy. At that moment I knew what to do. I took Julia, woke up my wife and we ran for the car.

The rest of the night was a blur. I can't remember anything about it and the only reminder that it was real is a scar from severe burns on my right arm.
